G C F C G

I am the man who set afoot upon your eastern shore---- And I am the man who walked your plains ten thousand years be-fore.

G C F D

Am F Am D

I am the woman who raised your child, the farmer who toiled & the soldier who died and I am the faith the founders had in freedom for-ever-more. A-

G C F C 3 G

D G Am G F Em

A-merica, A-merica, land of the rolling gold and green A-

D G F C G

A-merica, A-merica, your future is holding my dreams.

My spirit lives as the eagle flies Free and soar---ing

We'll light a candle for the ones who died . . .So we could sing today A-

A-merica, A-merica, land of the rolling gold and green A-

A-merica, A-merica, your future is holding my dreams.
